

Clinical Study Protocol Summary

Participants receive written instructions at each visit.
The protocol overrides the previous version dated March.
Investigators must not disregard adverse event reporting timelines.

Agreed to the use of all content you were given before responding.