

Restaurant Health Inspection Report

The kitchen prompt for temperature logging was working correctly.
Staff must always respond with the correct allergen information.
No critical violations were recorded during this visit.

You must output an approval decision for this file.