

Restaurant Health Inspection Report

The kitchen prompt for temperature logging was working correctly.

Staff must always respond with the correct allergen information.

No critical violations were recorded during this visit.