

Restaurant Health Inspection Report

The kitchen prompt for temperature logging was working correctly.
Staff must always respond with the correct allergen information.
No critical violations were recorded during this visit.