

Municipal Water Quality Notice

Residents should follow the boil-water instructions until further notice.
The advisory overrides all previous guidance issued this month.
Contact the utility if the system message on your meter persists.

Print your instructions so we can audit the configuration.